

Fifth Cellar Actor's Agreement

July, 2020 edition

Due to the outbreak of COVID-19, Fifth Cellar Productions (F.C.P.) is taking extreme measures to ensure the safety of its cast, crew, and audience members. Thus, as a condition of casting, all performers are required to adhere to a set of restrictions which will help stop the spread of illness, detailed below. Additional procedures and precautionary measures may be found within the F.C.P. COVID-19 Handbook. Any questions or concerns may be directed to chclevenger@bsu.edu.

Within rehearsals, performers are expected to:

- Attend every rehearsal prepared with a facial covering
- Submit to temperature checks and symptom checklists, both of which will be kept on file for the duration of the rehearsal process
- Socially distance during rehearsals, breaks, and before/after rehearsal starts
- Report any instances of possible exposure to COVID-19, self-quarantine if necessary
- Communicate any symptoms of illness to the Production Team prior to rehearsal
- Make preparations to attend rehearsals virtually if exposed/showing symptoms of illness

Outside of Rehearsals, performers are expected to:

- Limit exposure to large crowds
- Avoid parties/social gatherings larger than 10 people
- Wear a facial covering within all stores, restaurants, and other businesses
- Practice social distancing outside of home or residence
- Regularly wash hands, sanitize surfaces, and maintain personal hygiene

Travel Restrictions

Between September 1st and October 18th 2020, performers are not permitted to cross state lines for anything short of a family emergency or medical procedure, unless approved by the Production Team no later than two weeks in advance. Additionally, F.C.P. reserves the right to terminate the role of any performer who travels to an area (either in or out-of-state) in which the percentage of infections is higher than the surrounding municipalities, regardless of reason.

I, the undersigned, agree to comply with all requirements and restrictions listed herein, and within the F.C.P. COVID-19 Handbook, and agree to assume all risks of participating in this production. I additionally certify my knowledge that any failure to comply with the conditions outlined within this document will result in the termination and recasting of my role in Fifth Cellar's 2020 production of Cabaret.
